

CONCOURS MUSICAL INTERNATIONAL DE MONTRÉAL

A MAJOR INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION

The Concours musical international de Montréal brings together the world's best young artists on one stage. In a thrilling competition, audiences in Montréal and around the globe witness extraordinary performances from the new generation of classical musicians.

Each year, the Concours welcomes, in turn, 24 violinists, pianists, and classical singers – each of whom comes to Montréal to measure themselves against their peers.

VIRTUOSITY WITHOUT BORDERS

A Renowned Competition

The Concours musical international de Montréal is among the world's most important international classical musical competitions.

Since its creation in 2001, more than 5,000 young musicians from 90 countries, trained at the world's leading music schools, have applied to take part in the Concours, in the hope of experiencing this extraordinary human and musical adventure.

Today, the laureates of the Concours musical international de Montréal perform on the most prestigious stages around the world.

Quintessentially Montréal

Firmly rooted in Québec's vibrant ecosystem, the Concours reflects and contributes to Montréal's uniquely open spirit, warmth, and artistic richness.

A major player in Québec's dynamic cultural scene, the Concours musical international de Montréal proudly celebrates virtuosity without borders.

Join the audience in the concert hall — or the 3 million music lovers online — to experience this major musical rendezvous where Montréal shines on the world stage.
